Race Waiver

I know that running a road race is a potentially hazardous activity. I should not enter and run unless I am medically able and properly trained. I agree to abide by any decision of a race official relative to my ability to safely complete the run. I assume all risks associated with running in the Second Empire 5K Classic on April 26, 2015, including, but not limited to, falls, contacts with other participants, the effects of the weather, including high heat and/or humidity, traffic and conditions of the road, all such risks being known and appreciated by me.

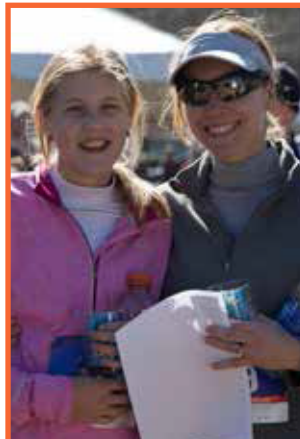

Having read this release, knowing these facts and in consideration of your accepting my entry, I for myself and anyone entitled to act in my behalf or on behalf of my estate, waive and release Second Empire Restaurant and Tavern, the City of Raleigh, and all sponsors of the race, any other persons assisting with the race, the officers, Board, Board members, agents, servants employees, and their successors and assigns of each and every of the above from all claims or liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation in the race even though the liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons referred to in this waiver. I also grant permission for use of any photographs, motion pictures, recordings, or any other record of my participation in this event for any legitimate purpose. I understand that if the race is cancelled because of circumstances beyond the control of the race committee and sponsors, including, but not limited to, unsafe weather conditions or governmental ban, my entry fee will not be refunded.

Second Empire Grand Prix Series

Born from the Second Empire 5K Classic, the Grand-Prix is the inspiration of Raleigh entrepreneurs Kim Reynolds and husband Rod Garnas, along with Inside-Out Sports owner Cid Cardoso, Jr.

In its thirteenth year, the Grand-Prix provides a fun way for competitive and non-competitive runners to give back to the community. Individual races pool a small portion of their operational funds along with Grand-Prix sponsors to cover series expenses.

The combined effort has provided races with increased visibility and attendance while decreasing operational costs. This savings can directly translate to larger proceeds going to the benefiting charities.

For more information, visit www.SecondEmpireSeries.com.

Sponsor a Runner

Trinity Academy of Raleigh students are seeking sponsors for their participation in the race. Visit SecondEmpireRaceRaleigh.com to sponsor a student.

FREE Child Care

Camp Trinity is offering FREE child care to race participants from 2-4pm (Kindergarten - 6th grade). Registration is required by April 20 at <http://tinyurl.com/5kChildCare>

TRINITY ACADEMY OF RALEIGH

Trinity Academy of Raleigh offers a unique educational experience for families in the Triangle Area because, in partnership with parents, we combine superior academics, fine arts and athletics with authentic Christianity. Trinity Academy of Raleigh prepares students for college, career and God's calling on their lives.

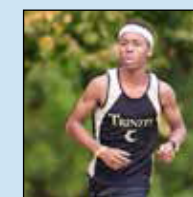

Our program is based upon the classical Liberal Arts and Sciences, which impart the knowledge, skills and virtues necessary to succeed in all of life.

Our core curriculum emphasizes the development of critical thinking, writing and public speaking skills, and focuses upon the interrelationship of history, literature, natural science, mathematics, classical and modern foreign languages (TK-12), fine arts, religious studies, the linguistic arts of grammar, logic and rhetoric, and physical education.

Trinity Academy of Raleigh equips students to live with wisdom, excellence, and purpose in the modern world by offering an education grounded in the Christian faith and the classical tradition.

Trinity boasts 100% college acceptance of our graduates and exceeds many area schools in scholarship dollars awarded per student.
